Customer Reviews

Love this book. It is very fun and fluffy and a perfect companion for any pen and paper RPG or even miniatures based RPG games.This book will be a staple in my future game writing plots for the foreseeable future.

Almost a little too silly for my likes. Having an interest in the genre, and being a fan of most Osprey publications I felt it was worth the cost, but not one I found myself wanting to read from cover to cover. I would have enjoyed it more had they kept it to a specific period rather than trying to cover all of the history of the United Sates, or so it seemed. Personally I think WWI or WWII only would have made it a much better booklet.

Ken Hite, Lovecraft, American History, it's a perfect intersection. My only issue is that he's so good at connecting dots I can't find the line between history and fiction, which makes me go do more research. It's hard to fault a book for inspiring more reading.

Another interesting alternate history read. Good inspiration for Wargamers and RPG Gamemasters who want to involve Cthulhu mythos into their eras.

This is a light alternative history that can be used for inspiration in any era Cthulhu game. I am glad I purchased it.
