Georgiana Darcy, Matchmaker

Synopsis

After Fitzwilliam Darcy surprised his sister, Georgiana, at Ramsgate and learned she was being tricked into eloping with his childhood friend, George Wickham; he took a most unprecedented path. Deciding Georgie was unprepared for such circumstances due to their society's preference to keep young ladies innocent and unknowing of the ways of the world, he chose to enlighten her. He began discussing things with her and educating her on matters that others may feel were not for the eyes or ears of a lady. He wanted her to be prepared when she came out in society and not be susceptible to the fortune hunters. What he did not realize was that she would use her new found knowledge upon him.

Customer Reviews

Loved this story! Ms Chisholm's masterful storytelling was effortless and lacked the contrived angst that one sees in so many JAFF stories. This is a wonderful story of Georgie's growth as she humorously tried to bring about E and D's HEA while unintentionally bringing about her own. Loved Wickham's comeuppance!

Our Dear Georgiana -- her own story!After being beaten down by the events at Ramsgate,

Georgiana seizes her opportunity to help her beloved brother in his courtship (before he had realized he was in a courtship) and thus begins her recovery. A wonderful story with Georgiana continuing to make errors and yet reaching maturity, told entirely in Georgiana's voice.

Love this variation, a wonderful idea to have it told through Georgina's eyes, I read this book in one sitting, hooray a writer who can spell and construct a fabulous story. That love was in the air at Meryton was apparent for many couples, suspense and the mandatory bad guys an added bonus. I can honestly recommend this book.
