What Christian Wives Should Know About Sex

Synopsis

A Sex Book for the Christian Wife. In its pages you will discover what God says should be going on between the sheets. Sex is something that should be talked about more in the Church. This book is to help Christian wives see it for what it is and to facilitate healing in our sexual beings. There is nothing to be ashamed of. Sex is GOOD. God created it and WANTS us to have it--in marriage, of course. Some of the topics we will discuss are: where it all started, manipulation, adultery, when husbands have lower libidos than their wives, porn, anal sex, tips and more. We will even hear what a Christian husband has to say about it. This book is sure to change your whole perspective of sex! Don't wait any longer! Have BETTER sex than what you have always dreamed of! Customer Reviews

I guess I am not exactly the target market here because I took great offense to pretty much everything written in this book. It tends to focus on all sexual problems in a relationship stemming from woman. The woman doesn't give it enough, doesn't enjoy it enough, weighs too much and isn't attractive enough.... yikes, really! Not only is it the woman's fault, but the author takes a "get over it and just have sex with your husband regardless" kind of stance about it too, which is off putting . I actually had to reread a paragraph 4 times to make sure I understood it correctly. It said that God doesn't want to hear my complaining if I am not getting enough sex from my husband, so to get over it. What? The further I read, the weirder it got. Pretty much condemns all forms of sex outside of the standard missionary. It's apparently wrong to have oral sex, anal sex, sex toys, R rated texts, or even have fantasies (if they are fantasies of other men author, you really need to note that in the book). So how are you supposed to spice things up, or change a slump you're in exactly... PG 13 moves and texts? I actually was a bit astonished that this book received such a good review. They must have all been excessively overweight women that hate sex and needed a very strong talking to about getting over themselves. That's basically the gist of the book on how to get through these "intimacy issues" with your mate. The chapter that was the discussion with the author's husband was strange as well, sorry, but that was weird. All in all, save your $3 (I wish I could get mine back) unless you really need a good wake up call if you are timid and afraid of sex or men.
