The Billionaire's Passion: Alpha Billionaire Romance (The Billionaire's Touch Book 5)

Synopsis

This is it. This is the moment Jax has been waiting for since the death of his sister: the truth. The ugly, shocking truth. Nobody saw this coming, but someone has to deal with it. As he confronts his deepest fears, Jax finally finds the courage to tell Kendra how he feels about her. About the two of them. However, his sincerity is met with nothing but silence. Kendra hasn't forgotten. She hasn't forgiven. And she probably never will. Note: this is the last book in the series and concludes Jax and Kendra's story. Contains explicit language for a mature audience only.

..but I had some issues with the story line that didn't coincide with one another. 1. In book 1, chapter 1: Jax said this of Hunter, "We weren't close, but he was a great employee--the best." and later on in book 5, chapter 7: Kendra asked Jax, "What are all these people doing here? I thought this was for your family." She was talking about Jax's family dinner after seeing Hunter and Brian there. Jax then responded and describe Hunter as "one of my closest friends.." 2. In book 1, chapter 1: Hunter said of Kendra, "I can recommend someone. 'Friend of a friend..'" and later in book 2, chapter 3: Jax called Hunter wanting to know if Kendra was telling the truth about her past. Hunter confirmed with

"Er.. we were childhood friends." He went on saying, Kendra "...was one of the first kids to show up [at his father orphanage]. She and I have been close ever since." How could Kendra be a friend of a friend, if he and Kendra were close since childhood.³ In book 1, chapter 3: Kendra said to the bellman about the weather, "...early springtime is always my favorite." and later in book 5, chapter 2: Jax described the weather as "Winter was moving in fast.." from book 1 to book 5 it's only been a few months only.. how can the weather jump from early Spring to Winter already. I would recommend this series only if there was a box set deal sale, this could've easily been a full length stand alone novel. Paying 2.99 for a 70-80 page book is NOT worth it and I do not understand why authors do this.

This was the final book of a 5 book series. You have to read them all in order to get the great love story that changed the lives of Kendra and Jax . Also how Kendra changed Jax and those around her into better people . Also the love of a little boy Tyson the son of Jax sister that was murdered in a plane crash. Please read you will enjoy the story.

I love the way Jax went after Kendra and made her see that she was loved and needed by both Tyson and himself. I was disappointed on how Alice's storyline was like a forgotten part that was tossed in at the last minute.

I was shocked at who did it but then couldn't believe how easy she admitted it. I loved how they stood by each other even though they had things to work out themselves. Over all except the fact it should of been one whole book I thought this was a great read Book 1 to Book 5. If you have the money to buy each one it will be worth it.

Loves it! The Billionaire's Touch series was great. I got a tad frustrated with Jax and his uncertainty and Kendra and her self-doubt but they got it together. Beautiful ending. I liked that his mother finally came around. Great read...I highly recommend this book.

I don't think it was worth the price but it was good enough to read all the books. The story was uneventful, a little shallow, but entertaining.

5 Series Stars This is the 5th and final book in the series and needs to be read in order. Jax and Kendra's journey comes to a close in this most explosive conclusion. Lemons become lemonade with just the right amount of sweetness one craves. This author brings out the best and the worst within each of these two characters. Also Jax's family because of circumstances that you must read to know about the right amount of twists bring this couple and one little boy to the conclusion one hopes for or does it? Loved this series! I thought the characters and situations were very realistic. I was so glad it was not drug out and beaten to death before the HEA. Look forward to reading more from L.N. Pearl.
