Customer Reviews

Really did like the plot/story line of the book. The one thing that I didn't care for is that there were many times that the characters were using rather rudimentary sentence structure. Like there were stating the obvious or repeating things often. That's the only reason I didn't give it a 5 star rating. Can't wait for the next book though !!

I'm not sure if the author saw my reviews and listened, but this book was perfect. Bolt truly grew as a character, especially with the ending. Bolt got a new power, he beat the most powerful villain yet with barely any help, and his new power, the red lighting seems very powerful, something Bolt needed. It knocked Robert out of his insubstantial form and hurt him, and the author could do even more with it the next book, like give it more special properties, letting Bolt discover them and he needs them. (Not too many maybe one or two, one possibly negating James' power in case he turns evil in the future.) I'll be reading the rest of this series for sure.

I loved how Bolt got his powers back when Robert stole them from him. Bolt was really brave because he killed Robert. It was really sad when Bolt's dad died. I really want to know about his dad's parents'

Like the teenager to adult theme. In book form, how great is that. Even league of supervillains and aliens. All type of Marvel like universe.
